Marlton Partners Files Preliminary Proxy Statement Related to Election of Directors for the 180 Degree Capital Board of Directors

Chicago, August 15, 2025 -- Marlton Partners L.P. (together with its affiliates and group members, “Marlton” or “we”), beneficial owners of approximately 5.8% of the outstanding stock of 180 Degree Capital Corp. (NASDAQ: TURN) (“TURN” or the “Company”), today announced that it has filed a preliminary proxy statement with the U.S. Securities Exchange and Commission to be used to solicit votes for the election of its four highly-qualified and independent director candidates – James C. Elbaor, Gabriel (Gabi) Gliksberg, Aaron Morris and Andrew (Andy) Greenberg (together, the “Nominees”) - at the Company’s upcoming Special Meeting of Shareholders scheduled for September 15.

James C. Elbaor, Managing Member of Marlton, commented:

“Yesterday, we filed our preliminary proxy related to our previously announced nomination of four highly-qualified director candidates to the TURN Board. As long-term shareholders, we remain committed to realizing TURN’s full potential, and believe the September 15 meeting is a long overdue opportunity for Company shareholders to cast their vote on the composition of the Board. Since first engaging with the Company more than a year ago, we have remained steadfast in our intention of helping instill strong governance at TURN and to ensure that shareholder capital is respected. We look forward to TURN’s owners having their rightful say on the future of the Company in September, and to speaking with shareholders directly about our nominees once we have a Definitive Proxy statement on file.”
